1. (Unclassified - GLC) Talked with Miss Dunbar in the office of Congressman John P. Saylor regarding a letter from the Congressman at his district office concerning the application of [REDACTED] I advised Miss Dunbar that while [REDACTED] had been under consideration for employment there were other applicants better suited for the position for which he was being considered. I advised her that there were no adverse security factors involved. Miss Dunbar thanked me for this information and said she would relay it to the district office.
